FINANCE BOOK AWARDED BEST FOR TEENS

Norwalk, CT – July 1, 2009

Cash, Credit and Your Finances: The Teen Years was reviewed by Radical Parenting's Teen Team and named one of 50 Best Parenting Books for Families with Teens and Tweens.

Jill Russo Foster wrote this book to help teenagers and their parents understand the basics of personal finances. Currently, 1 out of 5 college students owe between $3,000 and $7,000 in credit card debt and 68% make purchases knowing they can't pay the balance. It's evident that today's teenagers do not understand how credit problems will affect their ability to find a job or housing, let alone a fair rate on a car or mortgage loan.

Cash, Credit and Your Finances: The Teen Years is easy to read and contains worksheets, a glossary, and real world financial examples which is why it was rated highly by the Teen Team. Teenagers need financial information to be useful and understandable and Jill Russo Foster has accomplished that with this book.
